FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 28.

LOCAL NEWS.

For this district warmer southerly winds and fair weather, followed by rain.

THE LATE MR. BENJAMIN BARTON.—At a meeting of the Hydrantion S. F. E. Co., held last night, Richard L. Carne in the chair and Herbert L. Ramey secretary, the chair announced the death of the president of the company, and gave a brief sketch of his life with a eulogy of his character, when the following preamble and resolutions, reported by a committee consisting of the officers, were unanimously adopted, viz:

"The Hydrantion Steam Fire Engine Company having heard with the deepest sorrow of the departure from this life of its venerable and beloved president, Benjamin Barton, and being desirous of placing upon record its sense of his great worth and of the loss it has itself sustained, does hereby resolve:

1st. That in the death of one who has been attached to it during the entire sixty years of its existence, and has worthily presided over it for almost half a century, its members have lost a father as well as a friend.

2d. That his spotless life, his untiring industry, his unaffected modesty, his stainless integrity, his unfeigned charity, have given them noble examples which they will endeavor to follow.

3d. That they deeply sympathize with the widow and daughters of their dead president, and offer them their sincere condolence.

4th. That they will attend the funeral in a body, and that the other companies be invited to unite with them in rendering the last honors to the subject of Alexandria's firemen.

5th. That the house and apparatus be draped in mourning for the space of ninety days.

The funeral of the deceased took place to-day, and was largely attended, the fire companies of the city turning out almost en masse, while an unusual number of citizens laid aside their business concerns in order to attend the obsequies. The remains were brought here this morning from "City View," Mr. Barton's late residence, and placed in the Second Presbyterian Church, which edifice was filled to overflowing with friends and acquaintances of the deceased, while many, unable to gain admittance, remained on the pavement. Services appropriate to the occasion were conducted by Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie, who delivered a suitable and impressive address, after which the cortege began to wind its way to Ivy Hill cemetery, where the remains were interred, and where Mr. Dinwiddie concluded the last sad rites. During the funeral services the city bell and those of the respective fire companies were tolled, and the flags on the engine houses were placed at half mast. The pall bearers were Messrs. Stephen Swain, B. Wheat, George Duffey, R. L. Carne, E. S. Leadbeater and N. W. Pierson, and were selected as representatives of the different associations, enterprises and industries in which the deceased had taken an active part during his life.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Two interesting suits that arose in Fairfax county, were tried last week in the Circuit Court of Loudoun county. In April, 1884, Mr. W. I. Robey, a Herndon merchant, sold his stock of merchandise to Messrs. Presgrave & Hutchinson, for about $2,000 and his "good will" for $500. In a written agreement, it was provided that Robey should never oppose Presgrave & Hutchinson in any business, in Herndon, in which he, Robey, was then engaged. In July, 1884, Robey became, and has since continued to be, clerk in a general merchandise store, at Herndon. The suits were brought on the bonds representing the purchase-price of the "good will" by persons to whom Robey had assigned them, and Messrs. Presgrave & Hutchinson filed pleas, stating that Robey's course amounted to a breach of the agreement, and that he had thus opposed them in business, and damaged them to the extent of $500. Judge Keith held that:

1st.—When a merchant sells his "good-will" he can resume the same business even immediately, and next door to the vendee, unless he makes a covenant restraining his future operations, and

2d.—In this case, the covenant not to oppose Presgrave & Hutchinson, does not prevent Robey from clerking in another's store, though it would prevent him from setting up as a sole trader or partner in the line of business indicated.

The proof showing that Robey was only a clerk, a verdict was found for the plaintiff, under the Court's instruction.—Fairfax Herald.

CORONER'S VERDICT.—The coroner's jury summoned yesterday to hold an inquest and determine the cause of death of Mr. Frederick Studds, whose body was found at the Capital Brick company's yard yesterday morning, an account of which was published in the GAZETTE, re-assembled to-day according to adjournment, at the store of Mr. C. A. Pullman, on west Franklin street. They heard the statement made to Magistrate Pullman by Dr. Powell, who examined the body of the deceased yesterday evening and gave as his opinion that death resulted from apoplexy, as stated in the GAZETTE, and rendered a verdict accordingly. The remains of Mr. Studds were yesterday taken to his late home and will be buried to-morrow.

THE HOR.—The hog given at McBurney's hall last night by a number of young gentlemen of the city, was a success in every particular, and will long be remembered by those present, all of whom spent a delightful evening. The ladies appeared in full evening dress, their toilets being handsome and becoming, and rarely has there been such an assemblage of beauty and grace in this city. The music, furnished by Prof. Weber, was perfect, and dancing was kept up till a late hour. During the evening delightful refreshments were served. Besides the Alexandrians there were present a number of ladies and gentlemen from Washington, Warrenton and other places.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cold and clear, with two prisoners and three lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

George and Alexander White, arrested by officer Martin, charged with an assault on James Houlson and his wife on upper Prince street, were released for their appearance to-morrow.

Two white boys, arrested by officer Martin, charged with fighting on the street, were fined, one $2 and the other $1.

Two police officers charged with neglect of duty in not patrolling their beats, were instructed as to their duties.

DEATHS.—Mr. T. Fenton Whiting, an old and respected citizen of Prince William county, died at his home near Waterfall, in that county, on the 18th inst., in the 76th year of his age.

Mrs. John T. Brantell died this morning at her home on St. Asaph street, south of King.

Mrs. Hartley J. Kincheloe died at the residence of her step son, Mr. Nestor Kincheloe, near Centreville, Fairfax county, on the 15th, aged 78 years. Her remains were taken to near Catharpin, Prince William county, for interment.

Judge C. E. Stuart left this morning to attend the session of the U. S. Circuit Court, in Baltimore, where the Virginia coupon cases were to have been heard to-day.

It was stated a short time since that Mr. Robert Neville, of Loudoun county had made an assignment. Mr. N. writes to the Loudoun Telephone that he has made no assignment and knows of no debts that he cannot pay.

RIVER ITEMS.—Another skim of ice formed on the river last night, but not of a sufficient thickness to impede navigation, and it soon broke up and drifted off with the tide. The steamers that have resumed their routes since the freeze are making their trips regularly, and this morning several oyster boats came up the river, some sailing and some to-morrow.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The well known McDowell dramatic company will, next Monday, commence a three nights engagement in this city. The play selected for the opening night—"Our Regiment," will be followed on Tuesday and Wednesday by "Camille" and "Engaged."

Indorsed by all, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

"Beauty soon grows familiar to the lover, fades in his eye, and pales upon the sense." But a bottle of Salvation Oil will look well as long as people suffer with headache, rheumatism, and neuralgia.

"I do not like thee, Dr. Fell. The reason why, I cannot tell."

It has often been wondered at, the bad odor this oft quoted doctor was in. 'Twas probably because he, being one of the old-school doctors, made up pills as large as bullets, which nothing but an ostrich could bolt without nausea. Hence the dislike, Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" are sugar-coated and no larger than bird-shot, and are quick to do their work. For all derangements of the liver, bowels and stomach they are specific.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

There is a continued quiet prevailing in all branches of business, though the partial resumption of navigation has somewhat brightened the appearance of things. Money matters are very quiet, with abundant supplies and limited demand. Loans in Baltimore are quoted at 4 1/2 per cent. per annum, and discounts at 5 1/2 per cent. U. S. bonds are dull, and State and railroad securities are very quiet at nominal quotations. On the Baltimore Stock Exchange the following figures are given: Va. Mtd. 21 11 1/2; do 34 1/2; do 5th 10 1/2.

The market reports from Fredericksburg and Lynchburg indicate no change in quotations and but little doing.

New York, Jan. 28.—11 a. m.—There was another weak opening at the Stock Exchange this morning, first prices being generally from 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. below last evening's final figures, though Richmond and West Point was an exception, being 3/4 per cent. higher. The trading was moderately active, and the market was strong from the opening, and advances were established in the general list from 1/4 to 3/4 per cent. The market became quiet toward the end of the hour, and prices were somewhat irregular, but generally steady. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and steady to firm. Money easy at 4.

Flour is quiet but steady. The Wheat markets are without material change; futures are again draggy and lower, only a moderate volume of business being reported, common and damaged grades of Wheat being in full sympathy and hard to move, but all prime, sweet, flinty milling lots are readily sold and are in constant demand. Corn is active and higher. Rye and Oats are firm. Receipts of produce have fallen off, and owing to more favorable weather, prices have a hardening tendency.
